

Belgian Earth Observation Day 2012

Introduction

Jean-Christophe Schyns and Joost Vandenabeele
Bruges – 05/09/2012

STEREO II: PRELIMINARY FIGURES

- 59 projects and more on the way
- 3 dedicated hyperspectral campaigns (BRUHYP!)
- 87 research labs involved of which:
 - 3 Luxemburgian
 - 36 international
- Over 120 international experts in Steering Committees and 385 involved in evaluations

STEREO II: THE EVALUATION

Initial objectives

- Reinforce Belgian RS research capacities and RS innovation
- Place Belgium RS research and researchers on international map
- Increase RS user base

Aim of evaluation

- Quantify impact of programme
- Formulate guidelines for new programme

BEYOND STEREO II

STEREO III?

- Financial proposal on the table covering period 2014-2020
- Decision to be taken in context of ESA Ministerial Conference (November 2012)
- Support scientific community highly beneficial

BEODAY 2012

Programme

- Opportunities within the upcoming ESA Earth observation programmes
- New STEREO projects (call 2011+ shared-cost)
- Final project results (call 2007 and PROBA-V PP)
- Mid-term results of big thematic projects (call 2008)
- Two awards
 - Presentation of new project
 - Presentation of ongoing/finished project

ACTIVITIES

2012

- Call for shared-cost proposals

2012+2013

- Evaluation of the STEREO II programme
- Preparation of the STEREO III programme

2013

- BEODAY
- Supervision of the ongoing projects
- Launch of the first STEREO III call
- PROBING VEGETATION 21-22 May 2013

We wish you a very fruitful meeting

To stay aware of what's happening in earth observation
in Belgium and all over the World:

<http://eo.belspo.be>

Exhibitions and educational activities:

<http://eoedu.belspo.be>